

CUO organises Health awareness camp for the adopted villages

Under the vision of Prof. Sachidananda Mohanty, Honourable Vice Chancellor; The Unnat Bharat Abhiyan Cell of Central University of Orissa conducted health awareness camp in the University adopted village, Chakraliput on 9th January 2016. The University Physician Dr. Madhu Sudhan Mohapatra accompanied in this camp with the nodal officer and members of the UBA Cell. Physician Dr. Mohapatra, Nodal Officer Dr. Nayak and Member UBA Cell Dr. Padhi address about importance of hygiene & health, cleanliness, Nutrition, and safe drinking water in keeping oneself healthy. Villagers also ask questions regarding aspects of health. After the completion of interactive session, 27 persons consulted with Dr. Mohapatra, regarding their health problems. Villagers also requested to provide them some basic medicines in free of cost and regular health camps in the village.

