

CENTRAL UNIVERSITY OF ODISHA, KORAPUT
OFFICE OF THE PUBLIC RELATIONS OFFICER

PRESS RELEASE, 22.02.2023

CUO organizes International Mother Language Day

International Mother Language Day was celebrated on the campus of the Central University of Odisha under the aegis of the Dept. of Odia Language and Literature in a befitting manner. Prof. Santosh Kumar Tripathy, a retired professor of Utkal University, attended as the Chief Speaker and delivered a comprehensive lecture on 'Mother Tongue: The Basic Source of Cultural Development'. He highlighted the importance of the mother tongue in cultural development all over the world. He said that in the recent New Education Policy 2020, the Government of India is giving importance to the mother tongue in the field of education. On this occasion, The Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor of the University, Prof. Chakradhar Tripathy extended his best wishes to all the students, faculty, faculty and staff of the University on the occasion of The Mother Tongue Divas. Dr. Pradosh Kumar Swain, HoD In-charge of Dept. of Odia Language and Literature, delivered the welcome address and guest introduction and spoke about the importance and goals of celebrating Mother Language Day.

Mr. Sanjeet Kumar Das, Head in-charge, Department of English Language and Literature, said that translation is also a strong example of mother tongue love, while Dr. Saurabh Gupta, HoD in-charge, Dept. of Journalism and Mass Communication, said that mother tongue has a very important role to play in journalism and drama staging. Dr. Alok Baral, Assistant Professor, DELL said that East Pakistan's Bengali-speaking mother tongue Preeti and the sacrifice of life due to the struggle are rare in the history of the world. Dr. Phagunath Bhoi, Public Relations Officer of the University highlighted the practical aspects and importance of the mother tongue, while Dr. Ganesh Prasad Sahu, the courageous coordinator of the course of action, thanked the mother tongue as an invaluable resource of the individual and a shield for human solidarity. A large number of faculty members, faculty, researchers, researchers and students of the university participated in this program.

Dr. Phagunath Bhoi, Public Relations Officer