Nikon Supported Workshop on Photography

Introduction

We are excited to announce that the Department of Journalism & Mass Communication, in collaboration with the NSS, will be organizing a workshop on Basic and Advanced Photography. This initiative aims to equip participants with vital skills in photography, a key component of our curriculum and an essential tool in the field of media.

The workshop will provide NSS volunteers with the opportunity to enhance their capability in capturing significant moments through their cameras. Photography is not only an essential skill for communication but also holds considerable potential for future employment opportunities.
