Seminar on “Sustainable Development” organised at CUO

A special lecture on 'Sustainable Development' was organized by Department of Economics, Central University of Odisha on 10th November, 2022. Prof. Mrutyunjaya Mishra, Professor, Department of Economics, Banaras Hindu University, Varanasi, U.P. was the distinguished speaker for the programme. Hon'ble Vice Chancellor, Prof. Chakradhar Tripathi, conveyed his best wishes for the programme. The program was started with Dr. Minati Sahoo, HoD, Department of Economics, delivering the welcome address and introduction of the topic.

The Chief Speaker of the occasion, Prof. Mrutunjaya Mishra started by expressing his gratitude to Dept. of Economics, Central University of Odisha. In his talk, he emphasised how for the sake of economic growth, the health of the environment has taken a toll. With the ever growing economies and the need and greed for more, the doctrine of Sustainable Development becomes the most relevant principle in today's times. He discussed about the principles and dimensions of Sustainable Development which attempts to maintain a balance between development and the environment. It promotes inter-generational equity, i.e. better quality of life for present and future generations. The benefit from development ought to be equated with the impact on the environment for such development.

There was a healthy and productive interaction session among the resource person and the participants. Dr. Prasant Kumar Behera, Senior Asst. Professor introduced the Chief Guest and vote of thanks was delivered by Ms. Manisha Gupta, Ph.D. Research Scholar, Dept. of Economics, CUO. The program was attended by Faculty members, students and research scholars from different departments. The entire session was compeered by Ms. Pranjali Chand, PG student, Dept. of Economics, CUO.
