CUO observes Mahaparinirvan Diwas of Bharat Ratna Dr. Bhimrao Ramji Ambedkar

Dr. Ambedkar Centre of Excellence (DACE), Central University of Odisha observed the 66th Death Anniversary (Mahaparinirvan Diwas) of Bharat Ratna Dr. Bhimrao Ramji Ambedkar on 6th December 2022 at its Campus. On this occasion, the Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor of the University Prof. Chakradhar Tripathi paid homage to the great soul and offered floral tributes and addressed the students and faculty members of the centre.

Prof. Tripathi stressed that Ambedkar was the father of the Indian Constitution and was one of the greatest Social Reformers. He shaped India's progressive social outlook. He emphasized that the contributions of Babasaheb are so vast that we knew very little about him. The students and faculty should explore and research his works to find various aspects.

In this event the Programme Coordinator (DACE), Dr. B.K.Srinivas said that Dr. Ambedkar is the architect of modern Indian administration and that his contributions to carving the Indian governance, legislation and judiciary were immensely influential to all. Being a champion of the masses he is also considered the scholar of the world. He is a philosopher, administrator, economist, politician and chairman of the drafting committee of the constitution of India, which is considered the greatest text in the world.
