In the present context, whenever political turmoil occurs at international level, the states see India for help, because of India's ethos of morality and high quality ethics. The literature of Ramayan is followed not only in India, but in many countries throughout the world. That's why we should focus on proliferation and circulation of Ramayan literature at international level. India's Mantra of coexistence and correlation is unique all over the world. It is due to the ideology of Ramayan and its characters Lord Rama, Sita and others, he said.

The Ramayan literature is unique in its character. Prof. N.C.Panda focused on the philosophy of Ramayan era and its impact on the later period of India including the Buddhism and Hinduism. Ramayan literature is important because it says about the unification of society, not division of society, as mentioned in other literature.
