Five-Day Research Methodology Workshop Concludes Successfully at CUO

A five-day workshop on Research Methodology, organized by the School of Languages at the Central University of Odisha (CUO), Koraput, concluded successfully on April 11, 2025. The workshop, which commenced on April 7, was held under the guidance of the convener Prof. N.C. Panda, Head of the Department of Sanskrit and Dean, School of Languages.

Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor, Prof. Chakradhar Tripathi, lauded the initiative taken by the School of Languages, acknowledging its significance in fostering a robust research culture within the university.

Renowned researcher, author, and retired professor from Visva-Bharati, Santiniketan, Prof. Arun Ranjan Mishra served as the resource person for the workshop. Over the course of five days, he delivered a series of insightful lectures, greatly enriching the participants' understanding of research methodologies.

Research scholars from the departments of Sanskrit, Hindi, Odia, and English actively participated in the workshop. With CUO introducing Ph.D. programs across almost all disciplines in the current academic year, the workshop proved particularly beneficial for the newly inducted doctoral scholars. It provided them with essential academic tools and theoretical frameworks necessary for the successful completion of their coursework and future research pursuits.

The workshop was coordinated with the dedicated support of Dr. Debashis Karmakar (Assistant Professor, Sanskrit), Dr. Manoj Kumar Singh (Assistant Professor, Hindi), Dr. Raghunath Ojha (Assistant Professor, Odia), and Dr. Prasenjit Sinha (Assistant Professor, English), who served as co-conveners.
