

Lieutenant Dr. Anupam Dakua is currently working as Assistant Professor in the Department of Agriculture, Central University of Odisha, Koraput, Odisha. He belongs to the specialisation of Agricultural Extension Education. He basically belongs to Ganjam district of Odisha. He completed his B.Sc. (Agriculture) from College of Agriculture, Bhubaneswar, OUAT. After that he joined in the Department of Extension education in the College of Agriculture and completed his Masters' degree in Extension education from OUAT. During the Master degree he did research on 'Study on Impact of WADI programme on the sustainable development of tribals in the Keonjhar district of Odisha'. He completed his Ph.D. from Banaras Hindu University (BHU) from the Department of Extension Education, Institute of Agricultural Sciences. He did his doctoral Research on 'Study on Depeasantisation in Nayagarh district of Odisha'. He has also qualified ASRB-ICAR-NET. He has received the Young scientist award in Agriculture Extension by Vigyan Varta in April, 2021. He was awarded as Young scientist Award in the Global Iconic Education Award in November 2021. He was felicitated as a Notified Teacher by the Sikhyak Kalyan Foundation in December 2021. Along with participating in many National and International Seminars, Conferences and Workshops, he delivered many Radio-talks for the Framers of Odisha. He has published number of research Articles in National and international Journals, book chapters, popular articles. Along with this he has been selected as member of editorial board of many National and International Journals. He has delivered many guest lectures in the Gopabandhu Academy of Administration, the state Civil service Academy of Odisha. In addition to this he has completed the Pre Commissioned Course (PRCN) in Officers Training Academy (OTA), Kapmtee and conferred the title of Lieutenant.

