NOTICE

Keeping in view of the growing threats of the third wave of COVID pandemic and a difficult time feared in January, the authorities at the Central University of Odisha decide to keep both the hostels closed down wef 15th January, 2022 during the semester vacation. As such, the Students and Research Scholars are advised to leave the hostels latest by 15th January, 2022.

The authorities at the Central University of Odisha do really appreciate the concerns of the students and the scholars who desired to stay and pursue their studies in the hostels during the vacation. However, under the worsening situation and a possible snapping off the support services, the priorities of the University authorities are on the safety, security and comforts of the boarders over research and other academic activities.

The situation shall be reviewed from time to time and date(s) of reopening of the hostels shall be intimated to students and scholars through the University website.

This issues with the approval of the competent authority.
